DELIGHT FOR THE TOURIST

Summer Travel in Iceland Has Not Been Sufficiently Appreciated by Travelers.

Iceland! The name itself is a barrier to tourist travel. But let the tourist ignore prejudice and embark at Copenhagen or Leith, and he will find a delightful voyage over a smiling summer sea if he should go during June, July or August. He will be hardly more than two days out of sight of land—the far-reaching rock-bound coast of Scotland or the snow-crowned peaks of Iceland—but the journey across will occupy about four days. For his amusement the dolphins will tumble, the whales will spout, the seal will swim and the seabirds will fly; and there will be glorious sunrises and sunsets, with hardly more than two hours of night intervening. When he finally reaches Iceland he will see the sun set about 11:40 o'clock and rise again shortly after 12 o'clock, the golden glow of the sunset mingling with the golden glow of the sunrise.

All these delights cannot be assured to the winter traveler to Iceland. In fact he will be obliged to keep his lamp burning until 10:30 in the morning and then to light it again at two o'clock in the afternoon.—Mrs. W. F. Crafts, in Christian Herald.

RATS MAKE NEST OF BILLS

Experts at Washington Called Upon to Redeem Much Mutilated Greenbacks.

Chewed to small bits by rats, a bundle of bank notes was so badly mutilated that when the bills were presented for redemption at the New York United subtreasury the officials were unable to determine their denomination and had to send them to Washington, where the government experts will examine them and fix their value.

Henry B. Krause, who keeps a stall in the Oxford market, presented the bills. He said he had kept them in a drawer in his desk at the market and did not know how much he had put in. He placed the bills in the drawer as a nest egg to draw upon when he needed money urgently. When he opened the drawer recently a heap of green bits of paper met his gaze. At first he imagined he had been robbed, but closer investigation revealed the fact that the notes had been chewed to pieces and that the rats had built a nest of them.

EVENTS THAT PASS US BY.

We can be but partially acquainted even with the events which actually influence our course through life and our final destiny. There are innumerable other events, if such they may be called, which come close upon us, yet pass away without actual results, or even betraying their near approach by the reflection of any light or shadow across our minds. Could we know all the vicissitudes of our fortune, life would be too full of hope and fear, exultation or disappointment, to afford us a single hour of true serenity.—Hawthorne.

MOTION OF THE "DIPPER."

It is explained that the rotation of the earth upon its axis causes all the stars of the sky to appear to move around the north and south poles of the sky each day. The "dipper" has this motion, with all the other stars. The rotation of the earth is from west to east, and the stars appear to move from east to west. Those stars near the north pole with us do not set or rise, but move toward the east in the lower part of their motion and toward the west in the upper.

SOMEBODY ELSE'S UNCLE.

Young Doctor—Hello. Don't believe I have met you since we were boys at school. You're looking prosperous.
Young Lawyer—Yes; a rich uncle died two years ago and I came into possession of nearly $100,000.
Young Doctor—Why, I wasn't aware you had a rich uncle.
Young Lawyer—Oh, he wasn't my uncle. He was the uncle of one of my clients.

TAKEN AT HIS WORD.

Creditor—Suppose I'll have to wait till the day of judgment for what you owe.
Debtor—Yes; call late in the day, though.—Fliegende Blaetter.

Worth Weight in Gold

Aningdor, Va.—Mrs. Jennie McCall, of this place, says, "I had been troubled with female complaints, for over ten years. I could not walk or stand on my feet, and had been a most confined person for a long time. I began taking Dr. King's medicine, and now I can walk anywhere I want to go. God is worth his weight in gold." This is a high estimate on a plain, health medicine, yet there are thousands of women who would gladly pay this price for a remedy to relieve their suffering. Careful has helped others. Why not you? Try it. Your druggist sells it, in $1 bottles.

GREENWICH TIME IN FRANCE.

The clocks of France are to be set back nine minutes and, according to the law of the land just adopted, in the future they are to count off the hours and the days, second for second, with the clocks marking Greenwich time in England. Paris lies to the east of the meridian 9 minutes 20.9 seconds, and she has always held independently to her astronomical difference. By a law passed in 1891 the time of Paris was made the legal hour for all of France, although the town of Brest, far to the west, has a difference of 27 minutes.

MONEY IN CEMENT.

Increasing use of Portland cement in Australia for construction work of all kinds makes it possible for the local manufacturers to secure over 100 per cent. profit on the cost of production.

EVER FELT LIKE THAT?

Mother—Come, Willie, it's past time to get up.
Willie (lazily)—Then, I'll lie abed, ma, tell it comes 'round again.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

THE LESSER EVIL.

On a celebrated occasion in Vienna, when there was much excitement in all the European courts over affairs of international moment, the French ambassador was suddenly recalled by his government. "It is a very grave affair, is it not," Prince Metternich was asked by a lady at a court ball, "this recall of the ambassador?" "Not so grave, I assure you, madame," the prince responded, "as it would have been if it had been the French ambassador's cook who was recalled. The ambassador can easily be replaced; but not his cook."

CHARLIE'S NEW AUTO.

"Charlie's perfectly wild over his new motor car," remarked a man to a friend.
"Wild over it!" responded the latter. "You should see and hear him when he's under it!"—Lippincott's.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A man surprises a widow, not by kissing her, but by the way he does it.

Some men do a lot of unnecessary work in order to save doing a little work that is necessary.

If the world isn't better for your having lived in it, it ought to help some when you get out of it.

If a man does well in a small town he soon gets the idea that he could do better in a city.

A man hardly ever has to give up money to square himself with his conscience.

POPULAR CHOICE OF HYMNS

Methodist Church Members Make Selection, and Many Fine Verses Are Left Out.

The pastor of a Methodist Episcopal church in the United States recently, to test the popularity of hymns in the Methodist hymnal, selected 50 hymns—"the 50 in our hymnal that I would retain most heartily if compelled to part with the others." Each member of his congregation who cared to do so was asked to select from this list the ten which were "dearest" to him. "Nearer, My God, to Thee," led the popular vote. There were 113 votes cast for this hymn out of a total of 185. "Abide with Me" came second with 107 votes; "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" third with 92 votes. "I Love to Tell the Story" came fourth (89 votes). Close after this came "Lead, Kindly Light" (84 votes). The others chosen were: "Rescue the Perishing" (80 votes); "Rock of Ages" (75 votes); "Onward, Christian Soldiers" (67 votes); and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" (61 votes). Four great hymns just failed to get into the list, each of them receiving more than 50 votes: "Love Divine, All Love Excelling," "Jesus as I Am Without One Plea," "Faith of Our Fathers Living Still," and "In the Cross of Christ I Glory."

THOUGHT GIRL WAS FLIRTING

Ticket Agent Fondly Imagined He Had Made a "Hit," but He Was Mistaken.

A very handsome little sixteen-year-old girl was taking her first trip with her mother from Canajoharie to Duluth. They arrived early at the Canajoharie station and the long lashed brown eyed little girl looked in wonderment at all. As her eyes were glancing from one object to another, they each time passed the young ticket seller behind the wicket. His eyes caught hers and he thought that she, like other girls, was probably flirting with him.

The mamma pretty soon asked her to go up and buy the tickets and to this she protested, but her mamma thought she could just as well begin to learn how to travel. So in her modesty she stepped up to the window and said: "Todeluth." The ticket seller said in reply, "Todeludee, oh, you kid!"

MINCE PIE ON THE RUN.

When Mrs. Nellie Dougherty, who occupies a grocery at 107 Dupont street, Greenpoint, saw Frank Rittenhauser at 110 Greenpoint avenue and a pie disappearing through an open door she went in pursuit. Policeman McKillop joined her and captured the young man.

While the pursuit was in progress the youth, it is charged, was crowding pie into his mouth. The last part of the pie disappeared as the policeman brought him to a halt. The only evidence of a missing pie was what clung to the lips of the youth like a fringe.

Mrs. Dougherty, who came up, discovered what she declared was a currant and described the pie as having been a mince. When the prisoner was able to talk he blurted out that it was a mince pie and he wanted pineapple.—New York Herald.

DEDUCTION.

One day in the course of study the teacher had occasion to give a description of the republic of Peru. After describing its natural features, people, commerce, industries, products, etc., he gave his class a test to find out how much they remembered of what he had told them. Having received satisfactory replies to a number of his question, he asked: "Now, who can tell me what the principal products of Peru are?" Instantly there came from somewhere in the rear of the room the answer: "Prunes."

JUST A HABIT.

"I suppose, Ellen," she remarked to the new girl, with feigned indifference, "that you overheard my husband and me conversing rather earnestly this morning. I hope, however, that you did not think anything unusual was going on?"
"Niver a bit, mum. Oi want had a husband meself, an' niver a day passed that th' neighbors didn't belave one or th' other uv us would be kilt entirely."—Success Magazine.
